Iran protest deaths reportedly soar as woman's family tells CBS News she was tortured and killed by "morality police"

Iran has for the first time reported that more than 300 people have died in over two months of protests sparked by the death of Mahsa Amini in morality police custody. The Islamic republic has deployed state security forces against what it labels "riots" that broke out after the 22-year-old Kurdish-Iranian died on September 16, three days after her arrest for allegedly breaching Iran's dress code for women....

The New York Times irresponsible journalism and lack of journalistic integrity whitewashing the Iran regime human rights violations is old news. Their recent article "Iran Shutting Down Morality Police" even IF true is completely irrelevant as all discriminatory laws are still firmly in place. The timing of this piece is also suspect given the recent United Nations Human Rights Council vote to establish a fact finding mission on the regime's human rights violations, the United Nations vote to be held December 14th to expel Iran from the Commission on the Status of Women and the upcoming nationwide protests in Iran planned for December 5, 6 and 7.

Deeply disturbing! The Islamic Republic continues to target Iran's youth for peaceful protest. 16-year-old Sonia Sharifi arrested and imprisoned since October 2022 has been charged with "waging war against God" which is punishable by death.

Please be her voice.

On September 16, 2022, a 22-year old named Mahsa Amini was arrested by Iranian authorities for improperly wearing her hijab, the hair covering that all Iranian women are required to wear from a young age. Amini wasn't defying the law, and only a few strands of her hair were visible, but she was taken into custody where she later died. Many believe that she was intentionally killed by the regime.

Amini's death sparked a wave of protests that are being described as a Berlin Wa... See more
